(Special to The Evening World.)
CHICAGO, July7.—The weather man was certainly good to the Giants to-day. He dealt out the wettest kind of ther about noon and made the South eb footed could trespass.

The Giants did not express any sor-row. They appreciated the conditions for they were really tired after their night ride from St. Louis. But their will be but temporary, for it was th Selee's Cubs to-morrow. And to-day the Glants hung around elling tales attendant on the bright future. They had some food for gossip when they learned that Roy Clark, the ex-Brown University boy, had beer erved with his ten days notice of release. It set them wondering who was varn of Lajole and Flick was re be ascertained from the New York Club officials. They said there was no more news and that settled it. But it is likely at that that there is nothing new, and Clark's release probably only neans the return of Libe Washburn to the game from which he was put out sustaining a fracture of his nose in Boston on Bunker Hill Day.

Maybe Lajoie and Flick will come, but from the looks of things it seems not until the Giants get so low in the "standing of the clubs" as to dash all
